The servant went to meet her and said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."

Use the code to write the words on the lines.

= drink = camels

"Drink, my lord," she said, ... and gave him a _____.

After she had given him a _____,

she said, "I'll draw water for your _____ too, until they have had enough to _____."

This was God's sign that Rebekah was the woman who would marry Isaac.

The man then gave her gifts of gold. He bowed down and said, "Praise be to the LORD!" God had helped him find a wife for Isaac.

Help Rebekah get to her home.

Rebekah ran and told her family about these things.

Abraham's servant found a woman to marry Isaac. She gave water to his camels. Circle these things hidden in the picture:

Abraham was now very old. He asked his trusted servant to take a journey to the country where Abraham was born, and to bring back a wife for his son Isaac.

Connect the dots from 1 to 47.

The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?"
